THE TRUCKEE RIVER.

The Board of Commissioners at their last meeting passed an order instructing the County Attorney to take the necessary steps to bring action against parties interfering with the natural flow of the river. As we understand the matter, this is not intended to be the commencement of the suit, but only a part of the programme laid down by the Legislature last winter, which divides the expense between the State and this county. A Board of Examiners will no doubt make a report on the matter so that the best means can be taken to secure the rights of all. There seems to be but little difference of opinion on the subject of the dams at the outlet of the lake. That vast basin is a natural reservoir for the whole Truckee Valley, and the only way to make it useful is to hold back the water when there is a flood, and let it out gradually as the supply falls. There should be no monopoly of this great reservoir, however, and the government should see that it is used so as to give the greatest benefit to the greatest number.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

Dudley Haskell's case looks very different after both sides are heard from. A large number of eye witnesses testify that Schwartz fired the first shot, and that Haskell fired in self defence. Chas. Kaeding, of Lido & Kaeding, gunsmiths, Washington street, testified that a few weeks before the shooting Schwartz came to his store and asked him to examine his pistol. Witness told him that the pistol was what is known as the "English Bull Dog," and was not fit to carry for any purpose. He advised Schwartz to get another pattern. The "Bull Dog" was a blued and not a silver plated pistol. Reno people who knew him found it almost impossible to believe that young Haskell would walk up to a man and murder him, as the first reports said he did Mr. Schwartz.

The Ohio election comes off on October 14th. Great importance will attach to the result, as that State is one of the great battle grounds of political parties, and the elections this year will afford some indications of the prospects in the great campaign in 1880. The success of the Republicans in California and Maine may help the party in Ohio. The indications are strong for a Republican victory in the latter State on the fourth of next month. Little interest attaches to the Iowa election, occurring on the same day, as the result is not considered doubtful.

The population of Wheatland was yesterday intensely excited over the arrest of the Roddams for the assault on Ida Dunn and Cora Healep. The hearing of the case has been postponed until September 25th. The Roddams are out on bail of $500 each. Bearing in mind the great attention which the "Wheatland mystery" has received from the newspapers and the public, the long continued exertions of the detectives to find a clue in the case, and the large rewards offered, the release of the prisoners on such a trivial bail seems fairly ludicrous.

The Austin Reville states that the Directors of the Nevada Central railroad have determined to have the road built directly by the company. A large number of bids for bridging and grading were received, but they were all so high that the company can do the work cheaper themselves. The agent of the steam shovel is expected at Battle Mountain shortly, where, if his machine proves satisfactory it will be used on the road. The work has already commenced and is being pushed vigorously.

It might save accidents if the people who have trap doors in the sidewalks, would have a fifty cent iron hook in the end, to keep the doors standing upright when open, so that children and passersby would be in less danger of tumbling in. While the streets are torn up and obstructed in building, the practice of leaving these doors lying flat on the sidewalk, with the cellar open between, is especially objectionable and should be stopped.

The "City of Tokio," with General Grant on board, is expected to arrive next Sunday. He will receive a warm reception in San Francisco. The city will be decorated with flags, salutes fired, and every mark of distinguished consideration bestowed upon the veteran soldier. Gen. Grant's services to the nation have been such that he deserves a brilliant reception, and San Francisco will exert herself to do him honor.

Harvard has a new professorship, an instructor in Chinese. The new Professor, Ko Kum Hina, and his wife, recently arrived at the college direct from China. He will teach the common spoken language of China for commercial purposes. It is not proposed to establish a school of Chinese literature. Americans don't live long enough to master that.

Grant is reported as saying in a public interview with the Viceroy in Japan:

"I have had all the honors that can or should be given to any citizen. I have no claim to the office of President. It is a place distasteful to me."

Grant has thus himself condemned the movement to nominate him for a third term.

A dispatch from Eureka yesterday stated as the correct vote of Humboldt county: Berry, 1875; McKenna, 1419. The report previously published gave McKenna, 1042; Berry, 1233. If the dispatch of yesterday is correct, Berry leads McKenna by 67 votes. It looks as if McKenna was beaten.

The Argonaut has had a remarkable success. It filled a long felt want on this coast. Every number contains original stories and sketches of exceeding interest. It is a paper that one may extract a great deal of satisfactory reading from.

The Homestead Mill in the Black Hills is said to be the largest quartz mill in the world. It has one hundred and twenty stamps, in six batteries, which are run by a Corlies engine of 300 horse power.

Denis Kearney has gone to spend two weeks in the country so that his sensitive ears may not hear the boom of the cannon that will welcome Grant to San Francisco.

The Carson Appeal is informed that Grant will surely visit Virginia City, and that Mackey is making preparations to receive him. The Enterprise of to-day has nothing about it.

It amuses the professional telegraph repairer who runs up and down the poles like a squirrel to see the cleats nailed about a foot apart on private telephone lines.

Old Brin is watching his exchanges very closely for news of the Webber Lake hunting party. He finds some very amusing items in them.

The Lyon County Times says that Congressman Daggett will be a candidate for re-election next year.

Kallech will soon be well enough to preach.

STATE NEWS IN BRIEF.

Skunks are capturing Carson chickens.

Cottonwood $8 75 a cord in Tuscarora.

Ducks are plenty on Slean's ranch near Winnemucca.

Mahogany wood sells at $10 per cord and nut-pine at $9 in Eureka.

The Board of Pardons meets on the second Monday in October at Carson.

A hurdy-gurdy house in Eureka has been closed by the pressure of hard times.

In spite of riots and general wickedness, there are only four prisoners in Eureka's jail.

D. R. Sessions, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, is on his annual tour of inspection.

Tuscarora's hurdy-gurdy house closed down last Saturday night, but is now in full blast again.

Iceicles formed on the water tanks in Battle Mountain on Thursday night eight and ten inches long.

Joe Morgan, the well known sporting man, formerly of Carson, died in Bodie Sunday morning of pneumonia.

A belle of Eureka fell in the street, and afterward remarked that "it was providential she had on her new silk stockings."

The hydrocyanic acid in peach stones is proving poisonous to Elko children, and the Independent sounds a note of warning to parents.

The Independent says that there are two things an Elko man can't do at the same time—hold a good looking girl in his lap and keep from kissing her.

Mrs. Sampson, of Eureka, desiring to raise money to bring her daughter home from California, advertises a social party at her residence. "Tickets, including supper, $1 50."

Certified checks to the amount of ten per cent. of the amount bid for the construction of Eureka's new school house must accompany all proposals for its erection.

The assessment on the Central Pacific Railroad Company's lands in Humboldt county—about 33,000 acres—has been raised from $111,500 to $120,783, being at the rate of $1 30 per acre.

The Tribune thus describes the state of things in Carson: "The atmosphere feels pure and bracing, still the quietness gives that uneasiness that requires an exercise which soon falls under a weight of unaccountable oppressiveness."

BORN.

WILSON.—In Reno, September 17th, 1879, to the wife of G. W. J. Wilson, a son.

METEOROLOGICAL.

The thermometer at Osburn & Shoemaker's drug store to-day stood as follows: 7 A. M. 57°—9 A. M. 67°—12 M. 85°—3 P. M. 87°.

JOTTINGS.

—J. C. Hagerman has sold his residence.

—Mr. Fletcher wants to rent rooms. See 50-cent ad.

—Eureka Con. pays a dividend of $3 on the 20th.

—E. Stenge opens again Saturday with his tailor business.

—Mr. Rohrs is canvassing for Virginia soda water. See 50-cent ad.

—Chelovich's new Wine House will be finished and in full blast by the first of next month.

—J. E. Jones, I. Lippman and Mr. Steinberger, came home from a trip to Esmeralda, Belleville, Bodie and all over the southern country.

—H. D. Mussey picked two ripe strawberries in his garden last Monday. Very late in the year for strawberries here.

—J. Belz has a chair in J. J. Becker's saloon where he will share all his old customers with neatness and dispatch. Give Johnny a show.

—J. A. Brumsey has appointed Hagerman & Schooling his agents for this vicinity. A better selection could not be made. Read the new ad.

—"Rock and Rye," promises to be all the rage in Reno. Henry Johnson, after trying a dipperful of this morning, pronounces it an excellent ladies' drink.

—M. Nathan has sent up a lot of new goods, comprising a large assortment of everything in his line. He is expected home in a few days, with his bride.

—The closing by the Hebrews of their places of business, makes the town seem very quiet. A few will reopen this evening, but the majority will remain closed until 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

—M. Weil received a large assortment of dollmats to-day from the Cleveland Suit and Cloak factory. His Cloaks are selling very fast. Those who have not purchased a cloak yet will do well to go and examine them. Read his ad.

The Billiard Tournament Postponed.

The Billiard Tournament that was announced for the 22nd inst., has been postponed indefinitely. It was found impossible to get the players together on that day. One of the originators of the match says that it probably will not come off until the latter part of next month.

Havenor's Dog.

A man named Irwin shot Conductor Havenor's St. Bernard dog in Carson the other day, and Havenor brought suit against Irwin for $75 damages. Judge Cary has given a decision in Havenor's favor, but Irwin has appealed the case.

CRAZY JOHN

Committed to the Insane Asylum at Stockton—The Boys Did Him Good Bye—Some of His Peculiarities.

"Crazy John" was taken to Stockton last night by Sheriff Walker. John has been well known in this community for many years. Although known to be crazy, he has until recently been generally considered harmless. He lived by himself in some old hut or shanty, never begged, and always contrived to earn enough to support himself. He was a good worker, and possessed of sufficient common sense to execute any ordinary piece of labor allotted to him. He could saw and cut wood, dig, etc., as well as any man. His insanity is of a peculiar kind. There are subjects on which he cannot stand an examination. He has for a long time been convinced that he had manufactured a number of men out of wood and iron, and set them a-going with springs so that no difference could be detected between them, from men produced in the natural way. He had other queer notions, but aside from a habit of excessive profanity, and a way of talking to himself, he usually appeared perfectly sane. It is true that several times during the past few years he had said to different persons:

"I'LL CUT YOUR D—D HEAD OFF, but the threat was considered more an expression of defiance than a manifestation of an insane desire to shed human blood. But when on last Monday evening, Crazy John made an unprovoked attack with an enormous cheese knife upon the bookkeeper in Hagerman & Schooling's, it became evident that John was a dangerous man. The examination into John's mental condition yesterday, by the board of examiners, resulted in his commitment to the asylum at Stockton. When John was put on the train last evening he was visited by scores of citizens, who shook his hand with many expressions of good-will. He was very quiet, and apparently rational, saying often that it was a mistake to send him away. He was afraid that he would never see Reno again. The loss of liberty is a great calamity to any human being, and John's evident sorrow at leaving Reno and all his acquaintances was almost pathetic to those who witnessed his departure. Perhaps his mental infirmity may be cured in time, and John may be seen again on the banks of the Truckee.

DISTRICT COURT.

Yesterday—Afternoon Session. James Sullivan vs. Patrick J. Kelly—Motion to vacate the order taxing costs against plaintiff argued. Motion granted.

G. R. Funk vs. A. & D. Funk—Argument on demurrer. Parties allowed until Monday to submit authorities. Barnett vs. Hill—Set for trial Sept. 22d.

A. H. Manning vs. Mary Wall—All proceedings stayed until Sept. 22d. Court adjourned until Monday, Sept. 22d.

Marriage of Judge King.

The announcement of Judge King's marriage, made in the GAZETTE last week, was a little premature. The statement was of course made upon information and belief. As it has resulted, no harm was done, but the publication of false information of that kind is often anything but a joke to the parties whose names are mentioned.

Judge King's Reno friends to-day received by mail the following:

Dr. and Mrs. H. W. Carpenter request the pleasure of your presence at the marriage of their sister Fannie, Thursday evening, Sept. 18th, 1879, from 8 o'clock until 12.

S. D. KING. FANNIE CLARKE. No presents received.

To this invitation the court house officials to-day telegraphed a reply as follows:

Hon. S. D. King, Lancaster, Ohio. Can't get there in time. "Don't wait; go right on with everything. Much joy to the King and Queen."

(Signed) COURT HOUSE BOOM.

"Rock and Rye."

"Rock and Rye" bids fair to supplant "whiskey straight." It is composed of the best Bourbon whiskey saturated with pure rock candy. It is very palatable and said to be an invaluable remedy for bronchial and lung complaints. A trial bottle produced a marked improvement in the spirits of all the workers on the GAZETTE. H. A. Clawson, of the Depot Hotel, is the sole Reno agent for "rock and rye." He has a large consignment for sale, wholesale and retail.

Stopher's New Building.

It having been said on the street that William Stopher was about to put up a brick building where his saloon now stands, a reporter called on him to-day to ascertain the dimensions of the contemplated structure. Mr. Stopher was much surprised to hear of the report, and says that he has no such intention. He believes that Mr. Gettenberg, who owns the adjoining lot, has some notion of making improvements, but so far nothing definite has been planned.

Fine Furniture.

J. G. Davis, of Sacramento, is a gentleman to be recommended to the country people who visit California to buy furniture. He has an elegant stock and pays particular attention to Nevada orders. Read his advertisement.

PERSONAL.

George Gibson of Carson is in town. B. F. Leete went down on the lightning last night.

J. A. Brumsey of Virginia was in Reno to-day.

J. W. Browning has returned from San Francisco to take the place of J. Barstow as night operator and ticket seller at the depot.

Clarence King, the distinguished geologist, accompanied by A. T. Britton and E. Lord, arrived on the west-bound overland last night, and went up to Virginia this morning.

Mr. Barstow, hitherto night operator and ticket agent at the Depot, leaves to-day for Washoe City, where he will keep books for P. N. Marker. He makes the change to get clear of night work. His many friends here will miss him.

A. J. Lucas Heard From.

A. J. Lucas will be remembered in Reno as a partner of T. F. Laycock. He absconded from the town about two years ago, leaving many victims in this community to mourn the loss of coin.

Since that time he has several times been heard of as engaged in swindling operations elsewhere. Now he turns up in San Francisco, where he has just been sentenced to pay a fine of $500, to be imprisoned for eight months, and to be further imprisoned until the fine is paid, for having defrauded John Persbacher, a saloon keeper, of Chico, out of $100 by representing himself as an officer of the Internal Revenue department. E. B. Clark, who was indicted with Lucas, has been acquitted.
